

FRIDAY 16 NOVEMBER

4pm Pōwhiri

Rāpaki Marae, 37 Rapaki Dr, Rapaki 8971 Christchurch

5pm Registration / Dinner

6pm Kōrero ō te Marae

With Kerepeti Paraone and Rāpaki Whānau

Nau mai, Haere mai ki te Waka o Aoraki, ki te waahi o Rākaihautu. Join us as we share the stories of our marae and our people.

6:30pm Whakatā

7pm Panel: Kaumātua on the couch

With Whetu Fala, Rangimoana Taylor, Riwia Brown, Olly Ohlson and John Broughton

Aoraki Matatū - Our hard-case but pretty serious Kaumātua will grace us with their wit, woe and wonderings. Facilitated by the indomitable Whetu Fala, in this intimate session we celebrate the pioneers and hard-working kaumātua of our burgeoning industry.

SATURDAY 17 NOVEMBER

7am Parakuihi

8:30am Kōrero Karawhiua: Checking in with each rohe

With Tania Gilchrist, Miriama & Scotty (Auckland), Mitch T T (Wellington), Juanita Hepi (Christchurch), Noa Campbell (Whangarei), Cian Elyse White (Rotorua), Waimihi Hotere (Hamilton), Terri Crawford (Heretaunga) and Jessica Latton (Otepoti)

Representatives from around the motu will present a quickfire update on the state of theatre in their rohe.

9.30am Paramanawa

10am Workshop: Tuhinga Reo

With Hohepa Waitoa

Ko te Reo te Mauri o te Mana Māori. Our language is at a critical point so we are privileged to have Te Reo Māori champion Hohepa Waitoa; Kaitito, Manukura Tāne - Ngā Manu ā Tāne, Kaituhi - He Kura E Huna Ana and Kaiako facilitating this workshop.

Designed for all level Te Reo speakers, Hohepa will look at how to bring Māori kōrero to life through the promotion, development and delivery of Te Reo Māori in scriptwriting.

Workshop: Mōkihi - Devising

With Tola Newbery and Mara TK

A fast paced interactive theatre making session in three phases, Te Takinga - Intro to theatre, Karawhiua - working together, Ngahau - The Showing and an opportunity to perform as part of our Saturday night celebration.

Workshop: Piki Whakaari Māori Movement

With Savannah and Kerepeti Paraone

Piki Whakaari is the brainchild of Kerepeti Paraone & Savannah (Kāti Wheke). With 25 years kapahaka experience (Te Ahikaaroa Kapa Haka turns 25 this year) and a passion for Māori arts and music, this workshop will have you pulling out some of those kapahaka moves you love, teaming it to some of that māori music you love and weaving the strands of those into a short 2 - 7 minute piece. Learn some skills, gain some knowledge, nekeneke mai!!!

11.30am Tina

12.30pm Tuhinga Reo continues

With Hohepa Waitoa

12.30pm Mōkihi Workshops continues

With Tola Newbery and Mara TK

12.30pm Workshop: Kaituhi, Titonga - Writing

With Miria George

This 90 minute introduction to playwriting focuses on fleshing out new ideas, developing new ideas for the stage and learning new tools to help you build your first stage play. New writers will need their ideas, pens, paper or laptops.

2pm Whakata

2:30pm Panel: Tikanga Toi – Design and Technology

With Erina Daniels, Natalia Gwiazdzinski, Amy MacCaskill and Karena Letham

He aha te mea nui o te ao? He tangata, he tangata, he tangata! We are putting our production creatives on a discussion panel. What is their process? What are their challenges and celebrations? What is their vision for Theatre in Te Ao Māori?

3.30pm Panel: Tukanga - Mā whero, mā pango, ka oti te mahi – The Business

With Nancy Brunning, Hone Kouka, Tanemahuta Gray, Dolina Wehipeihana, Tama Waipara, Amber Cureen and Tanea Heke

Leading Tōtara, Kahikatea and Independent Companies talk about their business strategies for building a more efficient Contemporary Māori Theatre business model.

5.30pm Kai mo te pō - Marae

6.30PM Kōtuia - Pōwhakangahau

With Tola Newbery

Special Thanks to: Taungaroa Emile and Jacob Dombroski

An evening of entertainment, interactive theatre, music, kai and showing off some of what's good in Lyttelton and Ōtautahi. With art installations, site specific showings, Te Kākano Cafe & Cookery school providing kai and some special radio play to air, this evening starts from the moment we jump in the vans to travel to Lyttelton.

SUNDAY 18 NOVEMBER

7am Parakuihi

9am Whakawhanaungatanga

Time set aside for you to 'just be' with your friends and whānau, to kōrero, reflect on the days and nights, talk story and enjoy each other before we have our final reflection and poroporoaki then go our own ways.

10:30am Whakaniko (evaluations)

With Juanita Hepi

He Waka Eke Noa – an opportunity to consolidate our thinking and work towards a possible shared vision moving forward - ahakoa he wero, he āheinga.

12pm Poroporoaki

THE NATIONAL MĀORI THEATRE HUI 2018 IS HOSTED BY:

Te Whare Tāpere o Rākaihautū in partnership with Toi Māori Aotearoa. Major funding is provided by Creative New Zealand with support from Taki Rua Productions, Te Puni Kōkiri, Te Pūtahitanga o Te Waipounamu, Te Hapū o Ngāti Wheke and Christchurch City Creative New Zealand Communities.

Te Whare Tāpere o Rākaihautū are:

Juanita Hepi, Erina Daniels, Tola Newbery, Tania Gilchrist, Hohepa Waitoa, Kerepeti Paraone, Kylie-Jane Philips and Jeni-Leigh Walker.

Special thanks to advisors:

Nancy Brunning and Dolina Wehipeihana.

Toi Māori Office:

Himiona Grace, Garry Nicholas, Tamahou Temara, Mayet Regala and Edgardo Tabios.

Te Whare Tāpere o
Rākaihautū

NATIONAL MĀORI THEATRE HUI

16–18 November 2018
Rāpaki Marae, Ōtautahi

Noho | Kōrero | Whakatipu | Whakapapa | Whakaari

